

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- In your opinion, do people help each other at work?
- Why do you think that?
- How do they help each other?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can give and understand instructions.
- I can ask for somebody's opinion.

Let's Explore!

Brenda needs assistance at work. Sally is happy to help out!

* To "help out" means to assist someone to do something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Hello?
- Brenda: Hi Sally, this is Brenda.
- Sally: Hi Brenda!
- Brenda: Could you do a few things for me tomorrow when I am out of the office?
- Sally: Sure, how can I help?
- Brenda: I'm writing an article about strategies for choosing a profession, like journalist, lawyer or dentist. What do you think about that topic?
- Sally: It sounds interesting.
- Brenda: Could you verify if I got any phone calls? You know how our editor is strict about deadlines.
- Sally: Sure, I can do that for you.
- Brenda: Super. Could you return the calls?
- Sally: Absolutely.
- Brenda: Thanks. First, look in my mailbox for any messages there, then listen to my voicemail. Just press the voicemail button on my answering machine and enter the code 5-6-3-5.
- Sally: Got it.
- Brenda: Write down the names and phone numbers you hear. You can ask them the questions on the list. I left a copy on my desk.
- Sally: No problem, Brenda! See you Thursday.

Let's Practice!

Brenda is writing an article about choosing a profession. What do you think?

Instructions: Select the words that are profession.

Brenda: I'm writing an article about strategies for choosing a job, like journalist, lawyer or dentist. What do you think about that topic?

Sally: It sounds interesting. I think our editor will like it. You could talk about software developers and engineers as well.

Let's Practice!

Mark makes requests of Margaret. What does he say?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: Could, would, Sure, course, listen, listening, make, pleasure, please, verify.

Mark: _____ you _____ if I have any messages?

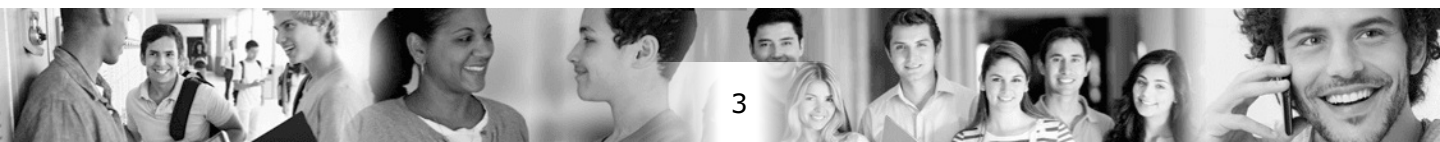

Margaret: _____, no problem.

Mark: Could you _____ a phone call for me?

Margaret: It _____ be my _____.

Mark: Would you mind _____ to my messages?

Margaret: Of _____.

Extension Activity

Make your own wordsearch using professions in English.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Review this lesson to make a list of 10 jobs and professions.
- Think of 5 more jobs and professions. Find the names in English.
- Go to an Internet site where you can create a wordsearch. Use the keywords "Make a wordsearch" to find one.
- Create your wordsearch.
- Print the document.
- Give your wordsearch to a friend or classmate. First, ask them to find the jobs and professions before they see the list.
- Then, show your partner the list of 15 jobs and professions. See if they can find all of them.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I review words for jobs and professions.

☐ ☐

I find more jobs and professions.

☐ ☐

I make a wordsearch game.

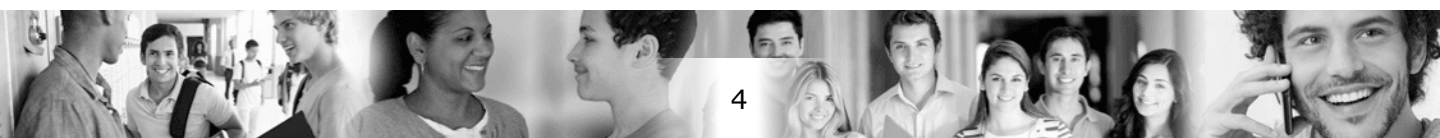

☐ ☐

I share the game with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- strategy (noun): a method; technique
e.g. I'm writing an article about strategies for choosing a profession.
- editor (noun): the person responsible for deciding on the content of publications like newspapers or magazines e.g. You know how our editor is strict about deadlines.
- lawyer (noun): a person who defends people in the legal system, or tries to prove they are guilty of a crime e.g. Working as a lawyer is difficult.
- to verify (verb): to make sure
e.g. Could you verify if I got any phone calls?
- journalist (noun): a person who communicates factual information to the public in different ways
Example: I'm a new freelance journalist with Cambridge Life.
- article (noun): a factual text appearing in a newspaper or magazine
e.g. How many articles should I write every month?
- deadline (noun): the last moment you can do something, like submit an assignment
Example: It's very important to respect the deadlines.
- topic (noun): the subject of a text, article, speech, discussion, etc.
Example: What do you think about that topic?
- button (noun): a place you press with your finger to select an option on a machine
Example: Just press the voicemail button on my answering machine and enter the code 5-6-3-5.

Learning Points

Making and Responding to Requests

It's important to be polite when you ask for something or respond to requests.

Making a Request	Responding to a Request
Can you ...?	Sure, how can I help?
Could you ...?	No problem.
Will you ...?	It would be my pleasure.
Would you mind ...?	Of course, I'd be happy to.

Examples:

- Brenda: Could you do a few things for me tomorrow when I am out of the office?
- Sally: Sure, how can I help?

Giving and Understanding Instructions

When you give instructions on how to do something, you use these words that show the order of actions:

First
Then
Next
After that Finally

To show you understand instructions, you can use these expressions:

I see
Alright
OK, I understand
Perfect
Got it
Cool

Examples:

- First, look in my mailbox for any messages there, then listen to my voicemail.

