Let's Start!

My account is activated ... Now what?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about methods of communication and communication technology in common social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can ask for or refuse help.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have problems using computers?
- What problems?
- How do you solve the problems?

Let's Explore!

Sally is having trouble logging on to the computer network. Why?

* To "log on" means to enter a computer system with a username and password. You can also say log in.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Technician: Hello, client services, how can I help you?
- Sally: Oh, is this the IT department?
- Technician: Yes it is.
- Sally: Hello, my name is Sally Davis. I'm a freelance journalist. I started working with Cambridge Life a few days ago.
- Technician: OK. How can I help you?
- Sally: Well, I got a new e-mail address, but it's not always working. I had problems logging on to the network.
- Technician: What happened when you tried?
- Sally: It said: "incorrect username or password".
- Technician: Did you activate your account?
- Sally: I'm not sure ... Could you please verify if my account is active?
- Technician: Sure, I can do that. What is your e-mail address?
- Sally: It's sdavis@cambridgelife.com.
- Technician: Just a minute please. Hmmm ... I see that the username sdavis is activated.
- Sally: OK.
- Technician: You must have the wrong password.
- Sally: Could you tell me what my password is?
- Technician: I'm sorry, I can't do that for security reasons. If you want, I can reset your password to your date of birth. Then you can change.
- Sally: Alright, that would be great. Thanks!
- Technician: You're welcome. Have a good day.
