Let's Start!

Let me show you the ropes!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Do you think training is important when you start a new job?
- Why or why not?
- Who does the training?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask for somebody's opinion.
- I can make and respond to requests.

Let's Explore!

Sally is at an onboarding workshop. Who is showing her the ropes?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Trainer: Hello. My name is Ted, and I'll be conducting your onboarding workshop this morning. Could you remind me of your name?
- Sally: My name is Sally Davis.
- Trainer: Good morning, Sally. Welcome to the staff of Cambridge Life! My job is to train you as a new associate. I'll show you the ropes in the company. We'll go over some of your new responsibilities. I hope I'll leave you with a great first impression of our company.
- Sally: I already have a good impression of Cambridge Life.
- Trainer: What do you think about the magazine?
- Sally: I love it. It's my favorite publication.
- Trainer: What's your opinion on the content?
- Sally: I think it appeals to a wide audience and has a lot of very interesting articles.
- Trainer: Excellent, I'm glad to hear it. Do you have any questions to start?
- Sally: Would it be possible to introduce me to some people in other departments?
- Trainer: Sure, that's a great idea. Come with me this way.

Let's Practice!

The trainer asks for Sally's opinion. What's her take on the magazine? Let's practice speaking.

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. Trainer: What do you think about the magazine?
2. Sally: I love it. It's my favorite publication.
3. Trainer: What's your opinion on the content?
4. Sally: I think it appeals to a wide audience and has a lot of very interesting articles.

Let's Practice!

Sally is learning about her new job!

Learning Points

Asking Somebody's Opinion

You can use the following phrases to ask somebody's opinion:

- What do you think about ... ?
- What's your opinion on ... ?
- Can I have your thoughts on ... ?
- What's your take on ... ?

Examples:

- Trainer: What do you think about the magazine?
- Sally: I love it. It's my favorite publication.
- Trainer: What's your opinion on the content?
- Sally: I think it appeals to a wide audience and has a lot of very interesting articles.

Making and Responding to Requests

It's important to be polite when you ask for something or respond to requests.
You can make a request by using:

- Can you ... ?
- Could you ... ?
- Will you ... ?
- Would you mind ... ?
- Would it be possible to ... ?

Making Requests	Responding to Requests
Could you remind me of your name?	Sure, here you are.
Would it be possible to introduce me to some people in other departments?	Yes, I'd love to! That's a great idea. I'm sorry, I can't do that right now.
