Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Sally has to make coffee in the office. Can someone help her?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about methods of communication and communication technology in common social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can write and understand instructions.

Ask your partner:

- Do you prefer coffee or tea in the morning?
- How do you make coffee?

Let's Explore!

Sally needs to learn how to work the coffee machine at the office. Does Carl have a sec to help her?

* "Sec" is the short form of the word second.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Carl, would you mind coming here for a sec?
Carl: Sure, what do you need?
Sally: I have to make some coffee but this machine looks too technical for me.
Carl: Before we start, everyone likes coffee in this office, except for Stephanie. She prefers Chai tea.
Sally: Could you pass me the coffee, please?
Carl: Yep, here you go! Yes, it's new. Here are the instructions.
Sally: Is this thing on? Oh, there we go. Can you read the instructions to me?
Carl: No problem. First, make sure the coffee urn is clean and fill the machine with fresh water to the line.
Sally: Yes, ok ... done. Next?
Carl: Second, grab the ground coffee container and place 6 heaping tablespoons into the filter at the top.
Sally: Filter? Do I need a filter?
Carl: Yes, take one of these ones. Put it into the basket. Then, add the coffee.
Sally: Oops ... I just spilled some on the floor. I'll clean that up in a bit.
Carl: Lastly, press brew. It should take about 10 minutes.
Sally: Thanks!
Carl: Can you bring me a coffee when it's ready? I'll be in the boardroom.
Sally: Absolutely! Thanks for your help.
